The McCarthy Library

To the students of Sacred Heart College, a vast quantity of material is available in the new library. Modern conveniences make study comfortable and even pleasurable. Capable assistants make material easy to find, enabling students to complete assignments with ease.

DEDICATION

Sister M. Helen

Under the patronage of the Sacred Heart, this book is gratefully dedicated to

Sister Helen

Who, out of her love, prayers and services, has made possible, from the smallest beginnings, this years outstanding achievement.

"The McCarthy Library"

A magnificent building, comprehensive in scope, a fitting monument to her self-sacrifice, learning and practicality, and truly representative of the ideals of Sacred Heart College.

Main charging desk and Sister M. Annette, head librarian.

Sacred Heart College

“... These same scenes so bright,
so beautiful, so majestic in themselves,
did become habitually dear,
And all their forms
And changeful colours by invisible links
Were fastened to our affections.”

Wordsworth

Most Reverend Vincent S. Waters, D.D.
Bishop of Raleigh

During the recent absence of His Excellency, Bishop Charles B. McLaughlin has proven a capable administrator for the diocese of Raleigh. Bishop McLaughlin has done much in the field of education for the Catholic Church in North Carolina. He is active in the youth apostolate, and has a great interest in vocations.

Throughout the diocese of Raleigh the word of His Excellency, Bishop Vincent S. Waters is seen.

A great and wise leader of the Catholic Church, His Excellency is at present touring his diocese and giving reports on the recent Ecumenical Council, which was held in Rome. His efforts are to enable both Catholics and non-Catholics to understand and appreciate the working of the council which now affects both Catholics and non-Catholics.

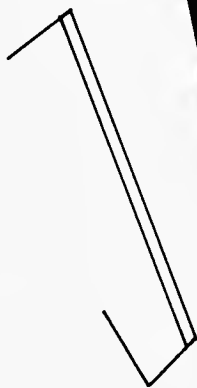

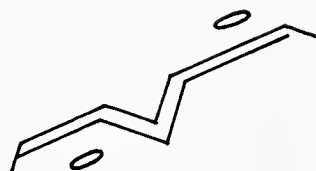

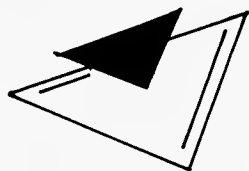

A great and wise Bishop, he leads his people toward Christ.

Most Reverend Charles B. McLaughlin, D.D.
Auxiliary Bishop of Raleigh

ADMINISTRATION

FACULTY

Reverend Mother Mary James, R.S.M.

PINK SOPHISTICATION

Looking forward to a joyful evening.

Elaine Barker, our Social Chairman, made a charming hostess.

Is everyone happy?

And the band played on.

Coming to a new school—

Are you sure this is the place?

Hi, I'm, I'm, I'm

Two more are missing.
Where are they?

You take the big one, I'll supervise.

and meeting your "Big Sister" and getting your BEANIE—
and going to the parade

Hi, I'm your "Big Sister"!

What is all this madness

Yes, Mr. Mayor, We like Belmont.

Our first dance with Abbey Boys—

Where's your beanie? Room 157

What kind of party is this?

From the Old—

to the New and back to the cafeteria

"MM good"

Not by bread alone....!

What kind of desert?

There were—

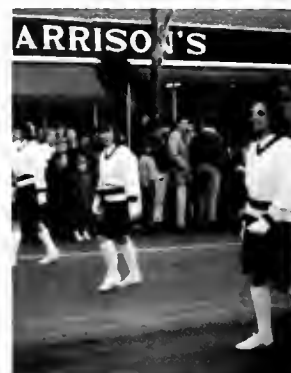

Soccer Games at the Abbey

Casual Afternoons

More Parades

A retreat with Father Sullivan

Bazaar and work

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9,
12

Turkey Days

Father, what do you think about

Sad going away party

Kathy, Sue and Mr. Gobble

Plays

Smile, you're on Candid Camera

Just pinned—

and our ROOMS—

IT Snowed and we still went to class

THEN the sun shone

and other "Things"

Plays

Oh come on — take the medicine

Bazaar

Meetings

"Any questions, girls?"

B-Ball

One point!

and then parties—

Call the nurse

Christmas at the "Vent"

Barbara and George

Mr. McGuire and company

Winter Weekend
